SPECIAL AWARDS AND CONTESTS

The Wasatch Holstein Breeders Ass'n offers to the F.F.A. and 4-H member of the County, a purebred Holstein Heifer calf to be awarded at the County Fair to an individual on the following rules:

1. — Basis for awarding calf:
 - a. Future in the project - 40%
 - b. Attitude and work in present project activity - 30%
 - c. Facilities for carrying project - 30%.
2. — Manner of awarding:
 - a. Board of Directors of Breed Ass'n to serve as judges. County Agent and F.F.A. instructor will receive applications and forward them to the judges. Applications must be in on or before August 7, 1958.

JUNIOR DIVISION

b. Calves will be alternated between 4-H and F.F.A.

c. In 1958 only F.F.A. members will be eligible to make application.

3. — Rules and agreement in awarding calf:

a. The first heifer born will be returned to Wasatch County 4-H Clubs or F.F.A. Chapter for the purpose of being awarded to another member.

b. The first calf will be a chain project

c. If the first calf is a bull 50% of the veal price of the calf will be returned to the County 4-H Clubs or F.F.A. Chapter. This will also be true if the 2nd and 3rd calves are also bulls. If the 2nd or 3rd calf is a heifer, the money from the veal will be refunded to the individual. After three bull calves and 50% of the price of the veal is turned back into the fund the agreement will be fulfilled and full ownership of the cow will be given to the individual.

d. The 4-H or F.F.A. member receiving the calf agrees to breed the heifer to an approved purebred sire of the same breed. The Directors of the local breed association will give approval of the sires to be used.

e. The 4-H or F.F.A. member agrees to exhibit the animal at County Fairs and local shows whenever possible.

f. Calves that will be awarded will be selected by the Directors of the local breed association. Selections will be made from dams with at least 400 pounds of butterfat index and out of proven or high quality sires.

g. The F.F.A. Chapter or 4-H Clubs will maintain joint ownership of the animal until the repayment clauses are met; at that time the animal will be transferred to the member. The member will insure the animal against death loss.

4-H CLUB DEMONSTRATION CONTEST

The 4-H Club Demonstration Contest is open to all 4-H Club boys and girls. The contest will be judged on August 6th at 2:00 p. m. Rules and regulations will be found in the Girls' 4-H Club Department of the book.
